FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON
TO BE GIVEN IN THE
LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-fifth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.
- V. Public Lectures, — in the Hancock Schoolhouse, Parmenter Street.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Lowell Institute Lectures, open to the public, will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall.

A New Plan of Ticket Distribution.

Tickets will hereafter be distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:—

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, in the order of application, one to each applicant, until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter, more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the Curator of the Lowell Institute, 491 Boylston Street, Boston, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope for each ticket desired.

On and after the day on which a Course begins any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained from the Janitor of the Lowell Institute at 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 and 12 A.M. and 2 and 4 P.M., or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope.

Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a separate letter (and stamped, addressed envelope) for each Course. Such letters will be placed on file, but in general, tickets for a Course will not be mailed to applicants more than a few days before that Course begins.

No tickets of any kind will hereafter be distributed at the Cadets' Armory; and no tickets will be given out by the Janitor of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

Any person attending the first Lecture of any Course may, before entering or after leaving the Hall, exchange his admission ticket to the first Lecture for a Course ticket which, as far as possible under the following arrangement, will entitle its holder to a reserved seat.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all Course tickets will be placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining reserved seats; and (if the demand for tickets to the first Lecture exceeds the number of reserved seats) some containing Course tickets good for Admission only. All envelopes will then be thoroughly shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course those who desire to do so may exchange their Admission tickets at tables in the lower hall for envelopes (shuffled as above described) containing Course tickets. Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering their Admission tickets at the same time, obtain envelopes with tickets for adjoining seats.

The exchange will begin at 7.15 P. M., and at 7.55 P. M. all exchange of Admission tickets for Course tickets will cease until after the Lecture. Persons arriving after this time, but before the doors are closed, may obtain admission to the Hall, and may exchange their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for Course tickets after the Lecture is over.

A limited number of persons having no tickets of any kind may, as heretofore, obtain admission (and often good seats) by waiting in line in the lower Hall at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find that they cannot use are requested to return them to the Curator or the Janitor, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

The Fourth Course will be ten lectures by A. T. Mahan, LL. D., D. C. L., Captain U. S. N. (retired), on The War of 1812. 1. Antecedents and Causes of the War. 2. Strategic Features of the Seat of War and the Conditions of the Opponents. 3. Opening Naval Events. Hull's Campaign and Surrender. 4. Niagara Campaign of 1812. Preparations on the Lakes by Commodore Chauncey. Harrison's Operations in the West, to March 1813. 5. Problems before the British Admiralty. Character of Privateering. Sailing of Squadrons under Commodores Rodgers and Decatur. 6. Sailing of Squadron under Commodore Bainbridge. American Plans and Operations for 1813. 7. Operations upon and around Lake Ontario, in 1813, prior to the Battle of Lake Erie. 8. Perry's Victory on Lake Erie. Subsequent Operations on Lake Ontario. 9. Maritime Warfare coastwise and abroad, 1813 and 1814. 10. Operations on and around the Lakes and Seaboard in 1814.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, Jan. 4, 1904.

The Fifth Course will be eight lectures by Harold C. Ernst, M.D., Professor of Bacteriology in Harvard University, on Bacteria in Modern Medicine. 1. Considerations in regard to Infection. 2. General Characteristics of Pathogenic Bacteria. 3. Methods of Action of Pathogenic Bacteria. 4. Defence and Reaction of Living Tissue against Bacteria and their Products. 5. The Condition of Immunity. 6. Immunity, continued. 7. Therapeutic Measures. 8. Hygienic and Prophylactic Measures.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, Jan. 5.

The Sixth Course will be eight lectures by Edward Channing, Ph.D., Professor of History in Harvard University, on Early American History. 1. Christopher Columbus. 2. The Isolation of the New World. 3. Florida and New Mexico. 4. The Founding of England's Sea Power. 5. The Genesis of the United States. 6. The James River Colony. 7. The Pilgrims. 8. New Plymouth Colony.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, Feb. 2.

The Seventh Course will be eight lectures by Georg Steindorff, Professor of Egyptology in the University of Leipsic, Germany, on The History, Social Conditions and Religion of Egypt.

Mondays, Wednesdays, and Saturdays. Feb. 15, 17, 20, 24, 27, 29, March 2 and 5, at 8 P. M.

The Eighth Course will be eight lectures by Dr. William Everett, on The Italian Poets since Dante.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, March 1.

The Ninth Course will be eight lectures by James Hardy Ropes, Professor in Harvard University, on The Apostolic Age in the Light of Modern Criticism.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, March 7.

The Tenth Course will be six lectures by Dr. Hans Gadow, F.R.S., Lecturer on Zoölogy in the University of Cambridge, England, on The Coloration of Amphibia and Reptiles.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning March 29.

II. SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

During the present season a change will be made in the work done by the Lowell Institute in connection with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. For more than a third of a century Lowell Free Courses of Lectures for Advanced Students have been given by professors of the Institute of Technology. These courses have done a great amount of good; but with the increased educational facilities of all kinds in Boston, they would seem to be less necessary than formerly. They have, moreover, covered many subjects without much relation to one another. It has been decided to substitute for these advanced courses a free evening "School for Industrial Foremen," to comprise, at the outset, two Courses, one mechanical and the other electrical, and each extending over two years. These new Courses are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend courses during the day.

An outline of the Courses is as follows:—

The subjects of the First year for both Courses are: Practical Mathematics, Elementary Physics, and Electricity; Elements of Mechanism and Gearing, and Drawing.

The subjects taught in the Second year Mechanical Course are: Mechanics; Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Elementary Hydraulics; Testing Laboratory; Steam and Hydraulic Laboratory, and Mechanism Design and Elementary Machine Design.

The Second year Electrical Course includes: Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Steam Laboratory; Direct Current Machinery; Alternating Currents; Electric Distribution; Electrical Testing, and Dynamo Laboratory.

For further information in regard to this School, see December, 1903, Bulletin.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

Under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

Free Lectures maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science of the Boston Society of Natural History will be given during the season as follows:—

1. Field Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.
3. Field Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.

4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.

5. Laboratory Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.

6. Laboratory Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.

The Field Lessons will be given in the spring and autumn. The Laboratory Lessons are given in the winter, beginning on Nov. 21.

Further particulars, with instructions how to secure tickets, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Curator, Teachers' School of Science, Boston Society of Natural History, Boston.

IV. COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Free Instruction, especially arranged for workingmen, will be maintained by the Lowell Institute during the winter under the auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute, as follows:—

1. On Practical Electricity. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Prof. William L. Puffer.

2. On Mechanical Drawing. Twenty lectures for beginners. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

3. On Machine Drawing. Twenty lectures for Advanced Students. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

4. On Practical Mechanics. Twenty lectures. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

5. On Steam and Steam Engines. Twenty lectures for beginners and Advanced Students. By Mr. Thomas Hawley.

6. On Domestic Economy. Fifteen lectures. By Miss Anna Barrows.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Secretary, Lowell Free Courses, Wells Memorial Institute, 987 Washington Street, Boston.

V. LECTURES AT THE HANCOCK SCHOOLHOUSE.

Two courses of twelve free public lectures each will be given this year in the Hall of the Hancock Schoolhouse, Park Street, as follows:—

1. A Course of Twelve Lectures on English and American Literature, by Charles Townsend Copeland, Esq., Instructor in Harvard University.

Thursday evenings, beginning Dec. 3.

2. A Course of Twelve Illustrated Lectures on Astronomy, by Alfred E. Burton, Professor in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Monday and Wednesday evenings, beginning Dec. 14.

Further particulars, with instructions how to get tickets, may be obtained from I. M. Norcross, Esq., Director of the Educational Centre, Hancock School.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON
TO BE GIVEN IN THE
LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-fifth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.
- V. Public Lectures, — in the Hancock Schoolhouse, Parmenter Street.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Lowell Institute Lectures, open to the public, will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall. For an account of the new plan of ticket distribution, see January Bulletin, p. 28.

The Eighth Course will be eight lectures by Dr. William Everett, on The Italian Poets since Dante. 1. Petrarch. 2. The Romancists: Pulci, Boiardo, Berni. 3. Ariosto. 4. Tasso. 5. Pastoral Poems, Marini, Tassoni, Filicaja. 6. Poetry of the Eighteenth Century: Metastasio, Goldoni, Casti. 7. Alfieri. 8. Later poets: Monti, Manzoni, Leopardi.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P.M., beginning Tuesday, March 1.

The Ninth Course will be eight lectures by James Hardy Ropes, Professor in Harvard University, on The Apostolic Age in the Light of Modern Criticism. 1. Early Christian Missionary Methods and Achievements. 2. Jewish Christianity. 3. The Apostle Paul: the Man and His Writings. 4. Paul's Theology. 5. Life in an Apostolic Church. 6. Peter; the Gospels; John. 7. The Era of Catholic Christianity. 8. Modern Historical Criticism and the Apostolic Age.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P.M., beginning Monday, March 7.

The Tenth Course will be six lectures by Dr. Hans Gadow, F.R.S., Lecturer on Zoölogy in the University of Cambridge, England, on The Coloration of Amphibia and Reptiles.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning March 29.

II. SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a free evening School for Industrial Foremen. The school comprises, at the outset, two Courses, one Mechanical and the other Electrical, and each extending over two years.

The Courses of Instruction.—These Courses are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend courses during the day. An outline of the Courses is as follows:

The subjects of the First year for both Courses are: Practical Mathematics, Elementary Physics, and Electricity; Elements of Mechanism and Gearing, and Drawing.

The subjects taught in the Second year Mechanical Course are: Mechanics; Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Elementary Hydraulics; Testing Laboratory; Steam and Hydraulic Laboratory, and Mechanism Design and Elementary Machine Design.

The Second year Electrical Course includes: Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Steam Laboratory; Direct Current Machinery; Alternating Currents; Electric Distribution; Electrical Testing, and Dynamo Laboratory.

The instruction embraces recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises; and is given by members of the instructing staff of the Institute of Technology. Text-books are used in many of the subjects, but in some of the work, where the instruction differs widely from available books, printed notes are supplied to the students at cost. Students are expected to purchase such text-books, note-books, instruments, and other material as may be recommended throughout the course.

No reports of standing will be given to students; but those students who are failing to keep well up with the work or to profit sufficiently by the instruction will be informed that they are not qualified to pursue the course advantageously. Those who complete satisfactorily the required courses of the two years and pass the examinations will be given certificates.

The School Year.—The next school year will begin October 3, 1904, and will close May 12, 1905. There will be a recess of one week at Christmas, and on legal holidays the exercises of the school will be suspended. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week will be required, in addition to outside study.

Requirements for Admission.—As the number of students that can be received is limited, application for admittance should be made before May 1. To be admitted to the first-year course the applicant must be at least eighteen years of age, and must pass satisfactorily entrance examinations in Arithmetic (including the Metric System), Elementary Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Mechanical Drawing. These examinations may be, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight will be attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience. The courses are open to those only who are ambitious and willing to study. The character and amount of the instruction is such that, if the student is not well fitted to take up the work of the school, it will not be possible for him to derive full benefit from the Course, or perhaps to maintain his standing.

A circular giving detailed information regarding the nature of the entrance examinations and other requirements may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Charles F. Park, Director, Lowell Institute School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

This new free evening school has been substituted for the Advanced Courses of Lectures that have been given for many years by professors of the Institute of Technology.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON
TO BE GIVEN IN THE
LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-fifth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.
- V. Public Lectures, — in the Hancock Schoolhouse, Parmenter Street.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall. For an account of the new plan of ticket distribution, see January Bulletin, p. 28.

The Tenth Course will be six lectures by Dr. Hans Gadov, F.R.S., Lecturer on Zoölogy in the University of Cambridge, England, on Coloration in Amphibia and Reptilia. 1. The Colors, Pigmental and Structural. 2. Changing Colors and their Mechanism. 3. The Philosophy of Colors. 4. Patterns of Color, their Evolution and Effects. 5. Patterns of Color, their Evolution and Effects (continued). 6. General Conclusions concerning Adaptation, Selection, Mimicry, Teleology.

Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning Tuesday, March 29.

II. SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established, under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, a free evening School for Industrial Foremen. The school comprises, at the outset, two Courses, one Mechanical and the other Electrical, and each extending over two years.

The Courses of Instruction. — These Courses are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend courses during the day. An outline of the Courses is as follows:

The subjects of the First year for both Courses are: Practical Mathematics, Elementary Physics, and Electricity; Elements of Mechanism and Gearing, and Drawing.

The subjects taught in the Second year Mechanical Course are: Mechanics; Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Elementary Hydraulics; Testing Laboratory; Steam and Hydraulic Laboratory, and Mechanism Design and Elementary Machine Design.

The Second year Electrical Course includes: Valve-gears; Elements of Thermodynamics, the Steam Engine and Boilers; Steam Laboratory; Direct Current Machinery; Alternating Currents; Electric Distribution; Electrical Testing, and Dynamo Laboratory.

The instruction embraces recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises; and is given by members of the instructing staff of the Institute of Technology. Text-books are used in many of the subjects, but in some of the work, where the instruction differs widely from available books, printed notes are supplied to the students at cost. Students are expected to purchase such text-books, notebooks, instruments, and other material as may be recommended throughout the course.

No reports of standing will be given to students; but those students who are failing to keep well up with the work or to profit sufficiently by the instruction will be informed that they are not qualified to pursue the course advantageously. Those who complete satisfactorily the required courses of the two years and pass the examinations will be given certificates.

The School Year. — The next school year will begin October 3, 1904, and will close May 12, 1905. There will be a recess of one week at Christmas, and on legal holidays the exercises of the school will be suspended. Attendance from 7:30 to 9:30 for three or four evenings a week will be required, in addition to outside study.

Requirements for Admission. — As the number of students that can be received is limited, application for admittance should be made before May 1. To be admitted to the first-year course the applicant must be at least eighteen years of age, and must pass satisfactorily entrance examinations in Arithmetic (including the Metric System), Elementary Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Mechanical Drawing. These examinations may be, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight will be attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience. The courses are open to those only who are ambitious and willing to study. The character and amount of the instruction is such that, if the student is not well fitted to take up the work of the school, it will not be possible for him to derive full benefit from the Course, or perhaps to maintain his standing.

A circular giving detailed information regarding the nature of the entrance examinations and other requirements may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Charles F. Park, Director, Lowell Institute School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

This new free evening school has been substituted for the Advanced Courses of Lectures that have been given for many years by professors of the Institute of Technology.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

Plymouth Colony. Laws.

MS. Room, Case 1
A manuscript in the handwriting of Nathaniel Morton, Clerk of the Colonial Court, certified by him. It contains the revision of the laws of 1658, with the supplements through the year 1666. There are fifty-one folios. A half of folio 16 has been torn off. This copy belonged to the late Ellis Ames of Dedham. "In his opinion it was the only one in existence of a number of copies then made to be sent to the several towns in the Colony. There were then no printed copies of the laws, and the duties of the Secretary of the Colony seemed to require that he should transcribe and furnish to the towns and others who might desire them, manuscript copies of those laws in his own handwriting." — Introduction, by Arthur Lord, to New-Englands Memoriall by Nathaniel Morton, fac-simile edition, Boston, 1903.

SPECIAL NOTICE

BOOKS FOR SUMMER READING

Extension of Limit of Loaning Time.

Books will this year be issued, during the period June 10 to Sept. 14, inclusive, from the Central Library, Copley Square, or direct from either of the Branches and Stations B, F, and P (Roslindale, Mt. Bowdoin, and Broadway Extension); to be retained by the borrower beyond the usual two-weeks' limit under the following regulations:

I. The following classes of books will not be issued for more than two weeks: Books added to the Library within the last twelve months; English fiction published within the last five years; certain books in active request during the summer (for example, late editions of guide books, nature-study books, etc.); books usually restricted from circulation, or such as, in the judgment of the Librarian or his representative, it may be found inexpedient to issue for more than two weeks.

II. Except as limited above, any books may be taken for the extended period, and need not be returned until September 14. They may, however, be returned at any time, and borrowers may make exchanges as often as they wish to do so.

III. The privilege will be granted to any card holder in good standing, whose card is previously submitted for inspection at the Registration Desk, Central Library, or to the Custodian of a Branch or Station, and against whom no charge is found to be standing. The summer address of the borrower must also be given.

IV. Any borrower who wishes to draw books for more than two weeks from the Central Library may send his card for inspection as above, through any Branch or Station, but this process will require at least two days for the sending and return of the card.

V. Applications for books for the extended period must be made on special call slips, to be had on application at the Issue Desk, or from any officer-in-charge.

Only two books will be issued on a card at one time for the extended period, and this restriction applies also to the special cards held by teachers and clergymen.

Books cannot always be issued on the day of application. Sometimes twenty-four hours will be required for examination of title. Whenever possible, however, they will be issued immediately.

VI. Applications for books may be made by mail if the Library Card is submitted with them. If available, the books requested will be charged on the cards, and books and cards will be ready to be called for on the day after the applications are so received. If the books cannot be issued, the cards will be held until called for, but in such cases the Library can neither undertake to notify the borrower, nor send out books by mail or express, even at the borrower's expense. Books may be returned to the Library, if prepaid, either by mail or express. All applications by mail must be addressed to the Chief of the Issue Department (at the Central Library), or to the Custodian of the Branch or Station from which the book is requested.

VII. No exemption from fine will be allowed on books retained beyond the usual two weeks' limit unless borrowers have complied with the rule as to having their cards inspected, and have drawn the books on the special application form, or have sent their written requests by mail or express. Books taken for the extended time will be finable if not returned on or before September 14. Books issued for the extended period are issued subject to recall, should exceptional circumstances require their return, and if so recalled, will become finable if not returned as requested.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON TO BE GIVEN IN THE LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1899.)

Programme for 1904-1905.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-sixth — season, four distinct Series are provided to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Lowell Institute Lectures, open to the public, will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall.

Method of Ticket Distribution.

Tickets will be distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows: —

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the Curator of the Lowell Institute, 491 Boylston Street, Boston, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a separate letter (and stamped, addressed envelope) for each Course. All letters will be placed on file, but, in general, no tickets for any Course will be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained from the Janitor of the Lowell Institute, at 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M. and 2 and 4 P. M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope.

No tickets will be distributed, as hitherto, at the Cadets' Armory; and no tickets will be given out by the Janitor of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, exchange their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for tickets good for the entire Course, which as far as possible, under the following arrangement, will entitle them to reserved seats:—

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all Course tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining reserved seats; and (if the demand for tickets to the first lecture exceeds the number of reserved seats) some containing Course tickets good for admission only. The envelopes are then thoroughly shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may exchange their first-lecture Admission tickets at tables in the vestibule for envelopes (shuffled as above described) containing Course tickets, generally good for reserved seats.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering at the same time their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

The exchange above described will begin at 7.15 P. M., and at 7.55 P. M. all exchange of Admission tickets for Course tickets will cease. Persons arriving after this time, but before the doors are closed, may still obtain admission to the Hall.

A limited number of persons having no tickets of any kind may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and often good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or the Janitor, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lectures in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

The First Course will be seven lectures (in French) by Dr. Pierre Janet, of Paris, France, Professor of Experimental and Comparative Psychology at the Collège de France, Director of the Laboratory of Psychology of la Salpêtrière, on Les Problèmes Psychologiques de l'Hypnotisme. I. Les étapes de l'hypnotisme, les problèmes qu'il soulève. III. La mémoire des somnambules et les personnalités alternantes. IIII. Le problème de la suggestion. IV. Les opérations subconscientes. V. Les limites de l'hypnotisme et les phénomènes occultes. VI. La thérapeutique psychologique. VII. Le rétrécissement du champ de la conscience et les oscillations du niveau mental.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, October 4.

The Second Course will be eight lectures by C. Lloyd Morgan, LL.D., F.R.S., Principal of University College, Bristol, England, on The Interpretation of Nature. I. Modes of Interpretation. II. The Basis of Experience. III. Conditions of Explanation. IV. The Riddle of Life. V. From Life to Mind. VI. Doctrines of an Ego. VII. Human Purpose. VIII. Purpose in Nature.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, October 10.

The Third Course will be three lectures by Rt. Hon. James Bryce, M.P., D.C.L., Author of "The Holy Roman Empire," "The American Commonwealth," etc., on Changes in the Last Half Century.

Saturday, October 29; Wednesday, November 2, and Saturday, November 5, at 8 P. M.

The same lectures will also be given in Huntington Hall on the afternoons of Monday, October 31, Thursday, November 3, and Saturday, November 5, at 3 P. M.

The Fourth Course will be eight lectures by Albrecht Penck, Professor of Geography in the University of Vienna, Austria, on Selected Chapters in Physiography.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, November 1.

The Fifth Course will be eight lectures by Ettore Pais, Professor of Ancient History and Classical Antiquities in the University of Naples, and Member of the Academy of Sciences of Rome, on Legends of Early Roman History.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, November 7.

The Sixth Course will be four lectures by James Ford Rhodes, LL.D., Author of A History of the United States from the Compromise of 1850, on Reconstruction and Negro Suffrage.

Wednesdays and Saturdays at 8 P. M., beginning Wednesday, November 9.

The Seventh Course will be eight lectures by Paul Milyoukov, Magister of Russian History, late Privat-Dozent at the University of Moscow and Professor at the University of Sofia, etc., on The Russian Crisis.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, November 29.

The Eighth Course will be eight lectures by Thomas R. Lounsbury, LL.D., L.H.D., Professor of English in Yale University, on English Literature in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Friday evenings (only) at 8 o'clock, beginning Friday, January 6.

The Ninth Course will be eight lectures by William T. Sedgwick, Ph.D., Professor of Biology and Director of the Sanitary Research Laboratory and Sewage Experiment Station at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on The Sanitation of Cities and Towns.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, January 9.

The Tenth Course will be eight lectures by George F. Moore, D.D., LL.D., Professor in Harvard University, on Judaism at the Beginning of the Christian Era.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, February 20.

The Eleventh Course will be six lectures by Thomas Wentworth Higginson, LL.D., on English Literature in the Last Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, February 28.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

In the place of the Advanced Courses formerly given under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the instructing staff of the Institute of Technology. Text-books are used in many of the subjects, but in some cases printed notes are supplied at cost. Students are expected to purchase such text-books, note-books, instruments, and other material as may be recommended or required.

No reports of standing will be given to students, but those who fail to keep well up with the work, or to profit sufficiently by the instruction, will be informed that they are not qualified to pursue the Course with advantage. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years and pass the examinations certificates will be given.

The present school year will begin October 3, 1904, and close May 12, 1905. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week will be required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight will be attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

The school is open to those only who are ambitious and willing to study. The character and amount of the instruction is such that, if the student is not well fitted to take up the work of the school, it will not be possible for him to derive full benefit from it, or perhaps to maintain his standing.

A circular giving detailed information regarding the entrance examinations and other requirements may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Prof. Charles F. Park, Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

Under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

Free Lectures maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science of the Boston Society of Natural History will be given during the season as follows:—

1. Field Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.
3. Field Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.
4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.
5. Laboratory Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.
6. Laboratory Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.
7. Courses in Chemistry and Physics (under certain conditions).
8. A Course of Lectures by Specialists in Physics, Geology, Geography, etc.

The Field Lessons will be given in the spring and autumn. The Laboratory Lessons will be given in the winter, beginning on November 19.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Curator, Teachers' School of Science, Boston Society of Natural History, 234 Berkeley St., Boston.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Free Instruction, especially arranged for workingmen, will be maintained by the Lowell Institute during the winter under the auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute, as follows:—

1. On Practical Electricity. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Prof. William L. Puffer.
2. On Mechanical Drawing. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

3. On Machine Drawing. Twenty lectures for Advanced Students. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON
TO BE GIVEN IN THE
LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

Programme for 1904-1905.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-sixth — season, four distinct Series are provided to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Lowell Institute Lectures, open to the public, will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall.

Method of Ticket Distribution.

Tickets will be distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows: —

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the Curator of the Lowell Institute, 491 Boylston Street, Boston, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a separate stamped, addressed envelope for each ticket and each Course. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, no tickets for any Course will be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. Not more than one ticket will ordinarily be sent to any applicant.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained from the Janitor of the Lowell Institute, at 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 and 12 A. M. and 2 and 4 P. M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope.

No tickets will be distributed, as hitherto, at the Cadets' Armory; and no tickets will be given out by the Janitor of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, exchange their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for tickets good for the entire Course, which as far as possible, under the following arrangement, will entitle them to reserved seats:—

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all Course tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining reserved seats; and (if the demand for tickets to the first lecture exceeds the number of reserved seats) some containing Course tickets good for admission only. The envelopes are then thoroughly shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may exchange their first-lecture Admission tickets at tables in the vestibule for envelopes (shuffled as above described) containing Course tickets, generally good for reserved seats.

Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering at the same time their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

The exchange above described will begin at 7.15 p. m., and at 7.55 p. m. all exchange of Admission tickets for Course tickets will cease. Persons arriving after this time, but before the doors are closed, may still obtain admission to the Hall.

A limited number of persons having no tickets of any kind may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and often good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or the Janitor, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lectures in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

The First Course was seven lectures (in French) by Dr. Pierre Janet, of Paris, France, Professor of Experimental and Comparative Psychology at the Collège de France, Director of the Laboratory of Psychology of la Salpêtrière, on Les Problèmes Psychologiques de l'Hypnotisme. I. Les étapes de l'hypnotisme, les problèmes qu'il soulève. III. La mémoire des somnambules et les personnalités alternantes. III. Le problème de la suggestion. IV. Les opérations subconscientes. V. Les limites de l'hypnotisme et les phénomènes occultes. VI. La thérapeutique psychologique. VII. Le rétrécissement du champ de la conscience et les oscillations du niveau mental.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 p. m., beginning Tuesday, October 4.

The Second Course was eight lectures by C. Lloyd Morgan, LL.D., F.R.S., Principal of University College, Bristol, England, on The Interpretation of Nature. I. Modes of Interpretation. II. The Basis of Experience. III. Conditions of Explanation. IV. The Riddle of Life. V. From Life to Mind. VI. Doctrines of an Ego. VII. Human Purpose. VIII. Purpose in Nature.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 p. m., beginning Monday, October 10.

The Third Course will be three lectures by Rt. Hon. James Bryce, M.P., D.C.L., Author of "The Holy Roman Empire," "The American Commonwealth," etc., on Changes in the Last Half Century.

Saturday, October 29; Wednesday, November 2, and Saturday, November 5, at 8 p. m.

The same lectures will also be given in Huntington Hall on the afternoons of Monday, October 31, Thursday, November 3, and Saturday, November 5, at 3 p. m.

The Fourth Course will be eight lectures by Albrecht Penck, Professor of Geography in the University of Vienna, Austria, on Selected Chapters in Physiography.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 p. m., beginning Tuesday, November 1.

The Fifth Course will be eight lectures by Ettore Pais, Professor of Ancient History and Classical Antiquities in the University of Naples, and Member of the Academy of Sciences of Rome, on Legends of Early Roman History.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 p. m., beginning Monday, November 7.

The Sixth Course will be four lectures by James Ford Rhodes, LL.D., Author of A History of the United States from the Compromise of 1850, on Reconstruction and Negro Suffrage.

Wednesdays and Saturdays at 8 p. m., beginning Wednesday, November 9.

The Seventh Course will be eight lectures by Paul Milyoukov, Magister of Russian History, late Privat-Docent at the University of Moscow and Professor at the University of Sofia, etc., on The Russian Crisis.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 p. m., beginning Tuesday, November 29.

The Eighth Course will be eight lectures by Thomas R. Lounsbury, LL.D., L.H.D., Professor of English in Yale University, on English Literature in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Friday evenings (only) at 8 o'clock, beginning Friday, January 6.

The Ninth Course will be eight lectures by William T. Sedgwick, Ph.D., Professor of Biology and Director of the Sanitary Research Laboratory and Sewage Experiment Station at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on The Sanitation of Cities and Towns.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, January 9.

The Tenth Course will be eight lectures by George F. Moore, D.D., LL.D., Professor in Harvard University, on Judaism at the Beginning of the Christian Era.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, February 20.

The Eleventh Course will be six lectures by Thomas Wentworth Higginson, LL.D., on English Literature in the Last Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, February 28.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

In the place of the Advanced Courses formerly given under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the instructing staff of the Institute of Technology. Text-books are used in many of the subjects, but in some cases printed notes are supplied at cost. Students are expected to purchase such text-books, note-books, instruments, and other material as may be recommended or required.

No reports of standing will be given to students, but those who fail to keep well up with the work, or to profit sufficiently by the instruction, will be informed that they are not qualified to pursue the Course with advantage. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years and pass the examinations certificates will be given.

The present school year will begin October 3, 1904, and close May 12, 1905. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week will be required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight will be attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

The school is open to those only who are ambitious and willing to study. The character and amount of the instruction is such that, if the student is not well fitted to take up the work of the school, it will not be possible for him to derive full benefit from it, or perhaps to maintain his standing.

A circular giving detailed information regarding the entrance examinations and other requirements may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Prof. Charles F. Park, Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

Under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

Free Lectures maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science of the Boston Society of Natural History will be given during the season as follows:—

1. Field Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.

2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.

3. Field Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.

4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.

5. Laboratory Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.

6. Laboratory Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.

7. Courses in Chemistry and Physics (under certain conditions).

8. A Course of Lectures by Specialists in Physics, Geology, Geography, etc.

The Field Lessons will be given in the spring and autumn. The Laboratory Lessons will be given in the winter, beginning on November 19.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Curator, Teachers' School of Science, Boston Society of Natural History, 234 Berkeley St., Boston.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Free Instruction, especially arranged for workingmen, will be maintained by the Lowell Institute during the winter under the auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute, as follows:—

1. On Practical Electricity. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Prof. William L. Puffer.

2. On Mechanical Drawing. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

3. On Machine Drawing. Twenty lectures for Advanced Students. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

4. On Practical Mechanics. Twenty lectures. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

5. On Steam and Steam Engines. Twenty lectures for Beginners and Advanced Students. By Mr. Thomas Hawley.

6. On Household Science, Cookery, etc. Fifteen lectures by Miss Anna Barrows.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Secretary, Lowell Free Courses, Wells Memorial Institute, 985 Washington Street, Boston.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE
CITY OF BOSTON
TO BE GIVEN IN THE
LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

Programme for 1904-1905.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-sixth — season, four distinct Series are provided to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

- I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
- II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
- III. Teachers' School of Science, — under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
- IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Further information in regard to the several Courses is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

Lowell Institute Lectures, open to the public, will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets is limited by the capacity of the Hall.

Method of Ticket Distribution.

For instructions for securing tickets see October or November Bulletin.

Lectures in the Fifth Course, by Ettore Pais, Professor of Ancient History and Classical Antiquities in the University of Naples, and Member of the Academy of Sciences of Rome, on Legends of Early Roman History, will be given on Mondays and Thursdays, Dec. 1, 5, and 8, at 8 P. M.

The Seventh Course will be eight lectures by Paul Milyoukov, Magister of Russian History, late Privat-Docent at the University of Moscow and Professor at the University of Sofia, etc., on The Russian Crisis. Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, November 29.

The Eighth Course will be eight lectures by Thomas R. Lounsbury, LL.D., L.H.D., Professor of English in Yale University, on English Literature in the First Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Friday evenings (only) at 8 o'clock, beginning Friday, January 6.

The Ninth Course will be eight lectures by William T. Sedgwick, Ph.D., Professor of Biology and Director of the Sanitary Research Laboratory and Sewage Experiment Station at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on The Sanitation of Cities and Towns.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, January 9.

The Tenth Course will be eight lectures by George F. Moore, D.D., LL.D., Professor in Harvard University, on Judaism at the Beginning of the Christian Era.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, February 20.

The Eleventh Course will be six lectures by Thomas Wentworth Higginson, LL.D., on English Literature in the Last Half of the Nineteenth Century.

Tuesdays and Fridays at 8 P. M., beginning Tuesday, February 28.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

In the place of the Advanced Courses formerly given under the auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, the Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the instructing staff of the Institute of Technology. Text-books are used in many of the subjects, but in some cases printed notes are supplied at cost. Students are expected to purchase such text-books, note-books, instruments, and other material as may be recommended or required.

No reports of standing will be given to students, but those who fail to keep well up with the work, or to profit sufficiently by the instruction, will be informed that they are not qualified to pursue the Course with advantage. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years and pass the examinations certificates will be given.

The present school year began October 3, 1904, and will close May 12, 1905. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week will be required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight will be attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

The school is open to those only who are ambitious and willing to study. The character and amount of the instruction is such that, if the student is not well fitted to take up the work of the school, it will not be possible for him to derive full benefit from it, or perhaps to maintain his standing.

A circular giving detailed information regarding the entrance examinations and other requirements may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to Prof. Charles F. Park, Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

Under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

Free Lectures maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science of the Boston Society of Natural History will be given during the season as follows:—

1. Field Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.
3. Field Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.
4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany, by Mr. Hollis Webster.
5. Laboratory Lessons in Zoölogy, by Mr. Albert P. Morse.
6. Laboratory Lessons in Geology, by Prof. George H. Barton.
7. Courses in Chemistry and Physics (under certain conditions).
8. A Course of Lectures by Specialists in Physics, Geology, Geography, etc.

The Field Lessons will be given in the spring and autumn. The Laboratory Lessons will be given in the winter, beginning on November 19.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Curator, Teachers' School of Science, Boston Society of Natural History, 234 Berkeley St., Boston.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN.

Under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

Free Instruction, especially arranged for workingmen, will be maintained by the Lowell Institute during the winter under the auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute, as follows:—

1. On Practical Electricity. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Prof. William L. Puffer.
2. On Mechanical Drawing. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

3. On Machine Drawing. Twenty lectures for Advanced Students. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

4. On Practical Mechanics. Twenty lectures. By Mr. Harrison W. Hayward.

5. On Steam and Steam Engines. Twenty lectures for Beginners and Advanced Students. By Mr. Thomas Hawley.

6. On Household Science, Cookery, etc. Fifteen lectures by Miss Anna Barrows.

Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Secretary, Lowell Free Courses, Wells Memorial Institute, 985 Washington Street, Boston.
